Boyle, U.S. District Judge, on April 16, 2008, to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 40 months. It was further ordered that upon release from imprisonment, the defendant be placed on supervised release for 36 months under the standard conditions adopted by the court and the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall participate as directed in a program approved by the probation office for the treatment of narcotic addiction, drug dependency, or alcohol dependency which will include urinalysis testing or other drug detection measures and may require residence or participation in a residential treatment facility.

Dustin Strother Watson was released from custody on November 22, 2010, at which time the term of supervised release commenced.
